Conſtantinople, November 23.

THE Porte has received Advice from their Commiſſary at Aſoph, of the Demolition of that Place, and on the 14th Inſtant the Ruſſian Ambaſſador was with the Grand Vizier to exchange the Ratifications of the laſt Convention. The ſaid Ambaſſador being on his Departure, M. Wieſchniakow is named to remain here as Reſident on the Part of Ruſſia. The new Miniſter from the King of the Two Sicilies is arrived in the Archipelago. We ſtill continue without any authentick Information from Perſia. Alli Paſhaw, ſometime ſince Vizier, is ordered from his Government of Egypt, to the Command of the Troops in the Neighbourhood of Erzerum. There happened a Fire on the 21ſt near the Seraglio, which did a great deal of Miſchief, and very much alarm'd the Court: The Vizier was preſent till it was extinguiſhed, which could not be done till after it had burnt 12 Houſes with great Rage.

Vienna, Jan. 11, N. S. The Great Duke's Equipage is left in Bohemia, and thoſe who came with him have Orders to hold themſelves ready to ſet out at an Hour's warning. Prince Lobcowitz is, for the Sake of Proviſions, approached nearer to Pilgram. Colonel Trenck has taken the three Places of Clauſen, Spital and Windiſchgarten, and made 692 Priſoners of War. In Mathauſen were taken a Captain, a Lieutenant, and 66 Soldiers, all French. What has given the greateſt Satisfaction here, and cauſed the more Surprize, is, that the moſt important Place of Scharding upon the Bavarian Frontiers has been taken without any Reſiſtance. The Thing happened thus, General Berenclau went from Riedt with 3 or 400 Huſſars to reconnoitre Scharding; five of which entered the Town with an Intention only to plunder and take ſome Priſoners for Information, but finding no Oppoſition, and hearing from ſome Women that the Garriſon, to the Number of 600 Men, were all exerciſing upon a great Place in the Heart of the Town, four of them took Poſſeſſion of the Inner Gate, barricaded it as well as they could, while the fifth return'd to General Berenclau, who being near at hand, made ſuch haſte that he came to the Inner Gate juſt as the four Huſſars were upon the Point of being charged. But as ſoon as the French and Bavarians ſaw him come, the beſt Part of them took their Flight, and the Burghers received M. Berenclau with his Huſſars very kindly, and as ſoon as he had ſecured all the Gates and Ports of the Town, he ſent 100 Huſſars to purſue the Garriſon, which had paſſed the Bridge, and was running away in the greateſt Confuſion; the Huſſars overtook them, killed a great many, and took about 200 Priſoners. Count Khevenhuller ſent immediately a whole Regiment of Infantry and 1600 Waraſdiners to ſecure that important Place, as well as Riedt, and General Berenclau is actually penetrating into the very Heart of Bavaria, in order to lay that Country under Contribution. There are actually above 3000 French and Bavarian Troops made Priſoners of War.

The following is a Liſt of the Generals and Troops which are at Lintz.

Copenhagen, Jan. 13. The Aſiatick Company having reſolved to ſend two Ships this Year to Canton, they both ſet Sail a Day or two ago for the Sound. But one of them, called the Prince Royal, is now returned into the Road, ſomewhat being amiſs in her Rudder; and the other, called the Sleſwick, we hear, has ſtruck upon the Ice on the other Side of Elſenore: It is not certainly known here, if ſhe be yet got clear, or what Damage ſhe may have received.

Dreſden, Jan. 14. M. Bulau, the Saxon Miniſter at Berlin, is to leave that Place To-morrow, in order to fix with his Pruſſian Majeſty's Commiſſaries at Breſlau, the Limits between Upper and Lower Sileſia. The Magiſtrates of Prague have conſented that 4000 Ducats ſhall be applied to the purchaſing of a Ring, which is to be preſented to Count Saxe, as a Mark of their Gratitude for his not admitting the Town to be plundered after it was taken by Aſſault. That Count has bought up ſince his Arrival here about 5000 Pair of Woollen Gloves and Stockings, which he intends to make a Preſent of to the French Army. The King of Poland has been pleaſed to promote Captain Merlin to the Rank of Major, and to allow him to keep his Company, and has beſides ordered him 400 Rixdollars, as a Reward for the brave Defence he made when attacked by a ſuperior Body of Auſtrians.

Dreſden, Jan. 17. M. Bunau, the Saxon Miniſter at the Court of Bavaria, left this Place the 15th Inſtant, in order to meet that Elect at Manheim. M. Gerſdorff, who was lately the Court of Treves, is, in a ſhort Time, ſucceed Count Lynar at Petersbourg.
